“ Curtis, Oh the memories we had! The chuckle you would make after cracking a joke would get me every time! We shared some good memories on and off duty! You taught me there is most definitely 2 sides to every coin! There was never a dull shift when we were working together! Forever your memories will be with me! Rest easy brother! We have the watch now! To the family and loved ones, I pray you find the needed comfort during this time.

“ We use to swap stories about crazy Marine shenanigans. He was a trusted coworker for many years. He could keep me entertained through a painful, long night shift. But his kind heart and hanging out off duty are some of my best memories. Your smile, Curtis, that I will miss the most. Rest easy brother. My prayers to the family for comfort.

“ I have so many fond memories of Curtis. He was a great friend, co-worker and deputy. One of his most valuable qualities at work was always remaining calm under pressure. I could look to him for support and confidence In times of stress. However, the BEST quality of a Curtis, he was an awesome friend. When I was injured at work, he helped me get to the hospital. When a co-worker of ours had terminal cancer, he was one of the first volunteer to help care for our friend. When I was pregnant and I was sick at work, he told me to drink half a Pepsi to settle my tummy....ok, that turned out to be horrible advice, but the thought was there. He was always able to make me smile with the same dumb joke “A horse walks into a bar and the bartender asked, why the long face?” Now he has an entirely new audience to tell his jokes to. The world was a better place because of you Curtis, you will be missed. Rest in piece my friend.

“ I knew Curtis for a number of years before changing jobs and moving away. Curtis helped me get my start in Jiu Jitsu, when there were no girls training, and I knew no one would want to partner with me. Curtis suffered a lot of bruises so I would have a partner, and we both enjoyed so many laughs. I treasure those memories, and I treasure my memories of Curtis are of him smiling and joking. Love and light friend.

“ The first thought I have when I think of Curtis is that he was a really nice, good guy. He was just a decent, honest, hard working, nice guy. My thoughts and prayers are with his family! I'm so sorry.

“ I worked with Curtis for 15 years. I got to know him better during the process of changing his military credits into police credits, A lot of stories about Grandma, the love of his life, and trying his home made soaps and pepper pills. Always something new and interesting. It is truly a loss on many levels that Curtis is gone. May God be with all of his family.

Mel Poirier - June 05 at 09:55 PM

“ Oh yes!! The Soaps and pepper pills... I need to look around, but I think I might still have one of his bars of soap he gave me.

“ I miss you uncle Curt. If I knew Saturday was the last time I would see you and give you I would have said I love you instead of see you later. I am so thankful I have a lot of memories with you over the years. And all your fart jokes. I wish you was still here. Love you. Semper Fidelis Sgt. Whetstone

Jessica Sutherland - June 05 at 05:07 PM

“ Curt, I miss you and the time we spent together talking and cooking. Helping me when I had troubles. I miss the times we would play games on the web, against each other, that was fun. It hurts deep to have you gone, I can not believe this happen. You were like a brother to me, always there when I needed help. You promise me that you would be here to help me if anything happen to my husband, and now your gone. You are missed greatly by many people, especially your great niece Jetta, she misses how you pick on her, and the times you played games on the iPad. We love you, and we know your not in pain anymore. Your with family that we haven't seen for a while.

One more thing, I would like to say Curt loved Dogs and Cats.
