Ilah Louise Goodman Nored

June 10, 1928 - November 29, 2016

Ilah Nored passed away November 29 at Timberwood Court Memory Care Community in Albany.

Ilah was born June 10, 1928 at Rice Hill, Oregon to Charles E. Goodman and Mary M. Goodman. She grew up in Summit, graduating from Philomath High School in 1946. She married Dale Brazeal in 1947. And later, William Nored, May 27, 1962. They were married 37 years before Bill's death in January 1999.

Ilah and Bill lived in Corvallis raising their three children. They were both avid Oregon State fans, enjoying season tickets to football, basketball and baseball. They were especially proud of their three children graduating from OSU. They loved to spend weekends at the Oregon coast with the family and fishing on the Alsea River.

Ilah worked at Pioneer Telephone Coop (Philomath) and Consumer's Power (Corvallis.) She returned to Pioneer Telephone and retired in 1990.

Ilah loved spending time with her five granddaughters. And, they enjoyed being spoiled by Grandma Ilah and Papa Bill. Her four great-grandchildren brought even more joy to her life.

The last two-and-one-half years Ilah lived at Timberwood Court Memory Care Community. The family is grateful for the loving care she received and would like to thank her wonderful caregivers. In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to Timberwood Court Memory Care, 2875 14th St SE, Albany, OR 97322, for their outings and field trips. Ilah loved their drives to the country, stopping for ice cream and trips to Spirit Mtn. Casino.

granddaughters Sonja (Tim), Amanda (Aaron), Angela, Lacey and Ashley. Also, great grandchildren Charles, Addison, Sofia, Alexis and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ so sorry we lost my buddy so soon. Ilah was a class act! I loved her to pieces. we became instant friends when i met her at Pioneer, we had many fun times. Ilah never said a bad word about anybody, she had a great sense of humor and had a funny saying for almost any situation.

God Bless You Old Friend

“ Ilah was a good friend to many people, we had a lot of laughs and cowboy pizza's when we were together. We would watch movies and just talk about everything when I stayed the night at her home. Ilah was a snappy dresser- matching outfit and shoes with just the right lipstick. I was so amazed she never needed a mirror to put her lipstick on...and it was perfect- just like her.

I will miss her, but I know she is in heaven with Bill and now she is happy. She really missed him when he left.

Love to all of you , Ilah was a great friend and will remain in my heart forever
