

Ina Daily

December 2, 1945 - September 13, 2009

Ina Jeanne Daily, 63, of Albany lost her long and courageous battle with cancer on Sunday. She was at home, surrounded by her friends and family.

She was born in Corvallis to George and Velma Chambers. She grew up in Corvallis, and graduated from Corvallis High School in 1964. She married Ralph Campbell Jr. in April of 1965, and had two wonderful children whom she loved very much. They divorced in 1977. In September of 1985, Ina married her soul mate, Douglas Daily. Together they made a wonderful life and a home very welcoming to all.

Ina worked for the State of Oregon from 1965 to 2006. In that length of time, she worked for the Extension Service in Corvallis and Albany, and then worked for Affirmative Action on the Oregon State University campus until her retirement.

Ina cherished her family, and her grandchildren were her life. She enjoyed gardening, golfing, and knitting socks and golf club covers for everyone. Everybody who met her immediately fell in love with her.

Ina is survived by her husband, Douglas Daily; a brother, Tom Chambers of Albany; daughter Phyllis Lehman and husband Chuck, of Eugene; son Thom Campbell and wife July, of Albany; stepdaughter, Elan Langridge, and husband, Russell, of Canby; stepson Blaine Daily and fiancée, Laura, of Albany; four beautiful grandchildren, Brittany Lehman, Holly Campbell, Joshua Lehman and Taylor Campbell; nephews Lonnie and Forrest Chambers of Philomath, and Chris Sedlacek of Albany; and many, many friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and brother, George "Avon" Chambers. She went to celebrate Avon's birthday with him.

A memorial service will be at 1 p.m. Friday at McHenry Funeral Home in Corvallis.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Ina's memory to Samaritan Evergreen Hospice, 1046 Sixth St. S.W., Albany, OR 97321.
