“ I knew Isabel years ago. She worked at Garfield school teaching special needs children. Lucky for us, she made house calls. She would come to our house once a week to see how we were doing and give advice for our first child Mandy who was born down syndrome. She was more of a source of love and kindness and my husband and I always looked forward to seeing her. . Mandy passed away at 11 months old during surgery and Isabel was the first person we called. It seems fitting to me that her funeral is on Mandy's 39th birthday. I know she's in Heaven with Mandy. Thank you Isabel for all the love you gave to all the parents of special needs children and especially all the love and your time you gave to all the children over the years. Your life on this earth made a difference. You definitely left the world a better place. My condolences to all of Isabel's family.
