“ Jason Mason. I still miss you and love you so much. I miss talking to you. You always had the most respect for me of anyone I ever knew. Love is energy, and energy never dies. I love you and will always love you with all my energy. See you soon.

“ Jason Mason, my first kiss, my first "boyfriend", before I knew what a boyfriend was. My bus buddy, from kindergarten to whenever we started driving ourselves. There was one day I remember you learned how to make yourself sneeze by shoving a pen up your nose and you kept doing it, one right after another, your eyes were watering from sneezing and I was crying from laughing... You had such a hard exterior, but were so, so silly when you opened up.

“ I moved to Corvallis my 8th grade year, to a house on Merloy, just down the street from Jay. Jay and his mom were my second family that year. Playing basketball in his driveway, playing our music too loud, and getting into trouble all the time. I'll never forget you.

“ I started 6th grade at Cheldelin after just moving from TX, and felt like a total outsider. Jay, one of the coolest kids in school was pretty much the only person who'd chat with me and be nice. We were never close friends, and hardly interacted in HS, but his kindness meant a great deal to me at the time, and it's something I remember with gratitude more than 20 years later. Rest peacefully, Jay.

“ Jay was my first boyfriend! I remember when he sent his friend, Quentin, to ask me out! We would sit on the phone for hours, usually saying nothing. Middle school love. He was always a sweet guy! Thinking of his daughter, family and friends.

“ Jay... brother... that's what we called each other, that's what were and forever will be!! We used to have long, deep conversations about life, the universe and what comes after. What the meaning of it all is. It boggled our minds! hahaha Well, I guess now you know. I know you're there. Can't begin to tell you how I know. I just do. I love you brother. Those were your last words to me, accompanied by the biggest heart felt hug. The help I gave that day meant so much to you.. so glad I was there for ya one last time. I will treasure that last moment until MY last breath, and beyond!! To Jay's family, I offer my condolences, and will keep you all in my prayers. Jay (J-dawg) meant the world to my kids, Kristi and Travis (T-dawg), and he will always be the honorary 4th member of our family. Jay was the best hearted, and most of the time, open minded person of any age to grace my path in life. He loved his best friends and family so much... Mom, sister, brothers, grandpa.. And so on. He spoke so highly and cared so much for Kyle and Spencer. He will be truly, TRULY, missed.. but never forgotten!

“ When our Mom, Jay's Grandma, passed away last November, a friend of mine sent me this prayer. I thought I would share it with Jay's loved ones as well. We all loved Jay dearly and will miss him always!

AN IRISH PRAYER

DON'T GRIEVE FOR ME, FOR NOW I'M FREE!
I FOLLOW THE PLAN GOD LAID FOR ME.
I SAW HIS FACE, I HEARD HIS CALL,
I TOOK HIS HAND AND LEFT IT ALL...
I COULD NOT STAY ANOTHER DAY,
TO LOVE, TO LAUGH, TO WORK OR PLAY;
TASKS LEFT UNDONE MUST STAY THAT WAY.
AND IF MY PARTING HAS LEFT A VOID,
THEN FILL IT WITH REMEMBERED JOY.
A FRIENDSHIP SHARED, A LAUGH, A KISS...
AH YES, THESE THINGS I, TOO, SHALL MISS.
MY LIFE'S BEEN FULL, I'VE SAVOURED MUCH:
GOOD TIMES, GOOD FRIENDS, A LOVED-ONE'S TOUCH.
PERHAPS MY TIME SEEMED ALL TOO BRIEF—
DON'T SHORTEN YOURS WITH UNDUE GRIEF.
BE NOT BURDENED WITH TEARS OF SORROW,
ENJOY THE SUNSHINE OF THE MORROW

“ The first day i met jay was when i got a job working for a local landscape buisness. I worked with jay and my uncle whos known jay since the 6th grade. Me and jay instantly hit it off. I gave him a ride to work everyday for like 6 months and every time i picked him up in the morning the first thing i would see him do is give me a big smile and a good morning B. I looked up to jay like he was my big brother and he will always be my family. I love big brother and i will always cherish the many memories i had with you! Rest in paradise and ill see you one day brother

“ Spencer and I send our sincere condolences to the family. Jay was Spencer Cave's best friend and I Wendie Cave (wife of Spencer) am so grateful that I got the opportunity knowing Jay and he became a dear friend to me. Jay was such a great person inside and out he was so caring and had a heart of gold. We had lots of fun over the years including camping and swimming at Triangle lake. Jay was supposed to come with us on our camping trip this summer. We will miss Jay so much and he will never be forgotten. We love you Jay, you are now pain free, forever Rest In Peace.

“ I miss you love...I miss your sweet little half smile and the way your eyes softened when you looked at me. You're an amazing person, thank you for allowing me to love again and to feel unconditionally loved. I will hold you in my heart forever. Love and miss you baby.

My prayers go out to all those who knew and loved Jay.

Shar - June 13, 2015 at 05:02 AM

“ Jay....Oh my Buddy. You were always such a sweet kiddo, and knowing you are gone way before your time...makes me so sad! You were always such a joy to be around at CV, and I'm thankful we kept in touch over the years. You had so many years ahead of you Mister...This shouldn't have happened. I will be praying for your family and your sweet beautiful daughter. She looks so much like you. Their loss is unimaginable. Heartbreaking. "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted, and rescues those whose spirits are crushed." Psalms 34:18

“ Jay we may have not talked for quite a while we may have let life get in the way of our friendship but I will never forget the great wonderful times and memories that we've had in our teenage years. It breaks my heart to know you are no longer here with us but I know that you're in a better place and this isn't goodbye so my friend I will see you later.

Jessica Ratcliff McDaniel - June 12, 2015 at 07:05 PM

“ losing a child must be the most painful loss. May Jay's smile, tenderness, kindness comfort all who new him. Jay was shy but loved to talk and share if you take the time to ask questions especially questions regarding his daughter. Jay's face would light up when talking about this precious daughter like nothing else would ever do. We will miss seeing his car parked at our home and wished we had spent more time getting to know him. Let the Lord and memories of Jay carry all who loved him through this difficult, painful and challenging time. In His love, Danny and Denise

“ Jay was one of my sons' friends, and while high-school age, he spent a lot of time at my house. I came to love him as my own. Tracie, thank you for sharing him with me. I am sharing in your grief, and praying for your family to find ease and comfort. Please let me know if there is anything I can do. I would like to always consider Jay, and all, as family. Sincerely,

Bird
You are like a son to me.
Think of you and miss you everyday and always will
Fly to Heaven Bird where we will meet again someday.
Love you
Grandpa (Pops)

Dick mason - July 01, 2015 at 06:38 AM

“ Pops,
Jay always talked about you. You meant the world to him. He had a special smile when he talked about you.
My thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of his family. He is missed and forever loved.
