“ I remember when I first met Margaret. I had gone for a truck ride with Don when he was drive truck for his own business. Her and Ken very nice couple to know.

“ I first met Margaret when Ken and Don were building my house on Greenmore Pl. in Corvallis. Don built my mom's house on Summerfield when that area was developed years later. She and Margaret became good friends as a result and were in a group that met regularly at New morning bakery for years.

Margaret was a very kind and soft spoken lady with a great sense of humor and I enjoyed knowing her. She will be greatly missed.

My condolences to her family.

“ Margaret Coon has blessed many of here at Willamette Landing - my husband and myself and many of Margaret's neighbors are thankful that she shared her land with all of us. We all loved her and were fascinated by her great history of this valley. Told us a lot about the "farm house here which was quite interesting. We played cards at our monthly "connections" group here in the hood as we call it and she usually won the games. We went to lunch several times and just plain enjoyed her company. She was a gentle soul who was kind, generous, gracious, and wonderful and well loved by all of us. We have missed her after she moved to Albany with one of her sons. If there is a service, several of us would love to be there. You can contact Annette Coleman here in the Landing. Blessings to all her wonderful family and may God provide peace and comfort for all of you. She was the best!
