“ I remember Robin as such a vibrant, enthusiastic teacher who made history so interesting to our kids, Will and Mary Crew. When I passed this terribly sad news to Will he immediately wrote back that she had been an awesome teacher and he loved her class. So very sorry for EVERYONE'S loss.

“ Joan and Charles: My heart goes out to you. Robin was a very special person to you and to so many children at Ashbrook. Laurel, my granddaughter, loved her class. When we were in London with Laurel at the Tower of London, she was so excited about the tour guides description, rushing to the front of the group so she wouldn't miss any words because she had learned about it from Robin. With sympathy, Maryanne Staton.
