

Albert Gordier

June 22, 1922 - March 9, 2011

Corvallis resident Albert A. Gordier passed away peacefully on March 9, 2011, at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center. He was 88.

He was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, to Edmond and Ruth Gordier. He and his wife, Ellen, moved to Corvallis from Husum, Wash., in 1997.

He proudly served in the U.S. Navy during both World War II and the Korean conflict, and spent most of his adult life as a truck driver.

He belonged to the Elks Lodge in White Salmon, Wash., for more than 50 years.

He enjoyed gardening — especially growing roses, daily walks, short trips in his motor home around this area with dear friend and neighbor Barbara, and having breakfast with friends at Darrell's Restaurant.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Ellen, and is survived by daughter Terry, and sons Tim and Teddy, in addition to many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He will be missed.

No public service is planned.
