

Alvin Joseph Turcotte

October 21, 1944 - June 5, 2016

Alvin Joseph Turcotte, 71, died at his Corvallis home on June 5th. Surrounded by family, he delighted them with his humor to the last, holding a profoundly deep love for each of them. As one of Jehovah's Witnesses, Al found comfort in the Bible's promise of a resurrection to a future paradise on Earth. He shared this hope with others, or a stack of wood in winter, whichever the need.

“ I am very sorry to hear about Al. What a wonderful gift of humor he shared. I will miss the bantering back and forth and trying to see which of us will come through with a BBQ first. I thought we had many more years to tease. You have my deepest sympathy. Just know what a wonderful human being he was. Bobbi Dutoit

“ I met Alvin and Heidi at Marie and Eric's wedding reception at Fieldbrook Winery many years ago. Alvin and Heidi were in the kitchen cooking with music playing and the family socializing and dancing around. I remember thinking that Marie is and will always be very special, since her Mom and Dad were so loving, kind, and completely wonderful people. The love felt in the room was incredible. More love around than most people have seen or felt. I am to this day still inspired by them.

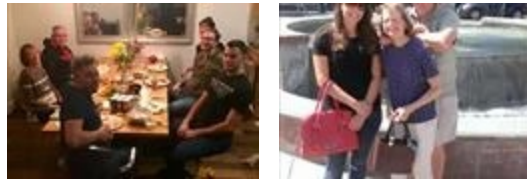

I am so sorry to hear about Al. I know how hard it is to lose your father. My family's thoughts and prayers are with your family during this very difficult time. If there is anything we can do to help, we are here for you.

“ We were so sorry to hear about this! Your Dad was awesome. Ed used to go on his study with Dave Vannberg and we always enjoyed talking and laughing with him! He had the best sense of humor! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you-and we look forward to seeing his smile and hearing his laugh again! 😭

“ I'll always remember Al's sense of humor. All the times I would be at your house growing up it would seem he was always making me laugh. My thoughts and prayers are with you all until we see him again!

“ Dad always considered himself to be lucky, but the truth was he worked very hard for everything he had. He always offered an encouraging word, smile and a laugh to anyone who needed it. He instilled in us the same sarcasm, determination and love that kept him going all of these years. We were the lucky ones to have had such an amazingly caring and loving Dad. He was always there to help us anytime we needed it and always made sure we each knew that he thought the world of us. Going to miss him a lot.
