“ I don't know any of you but I did know Andy. I was in a business law class he taught at LBCC in the early 90's. It wasn't a class many people enjoyed and he was a tough instructor. I did enjoy the class. I worked hard and learned a lot from him.

I ran into him several times after graduating from LBCC and then OSU. He always remembered me and seemed happy to see me, and he was interested in how I was doing. He was a wonderful man and I feel honored to have known him; he made a difference in my life.

You all have my deepest sympathy.
