

Arvada E. Wray

February 5, 1939 - September 16, 2017

Vada was born in Toledo, Oregon.

She passed away peacefully in Albany at the Evergreen Hospice House with her husband and daughter, Penny by her side.

Vada enjoyed taking long drives. She was also an airplane enthusiast, cheered on the Beavers and especially loved RVing to Yuma, Arizona.

She worked as an office nurse for Dr. Leo Little in Lebanon for 26 years.

Vada loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband, Lyman Wray; daughters Penny and Enrique Espinosa, Jean, Lisha and Wally Chose; and son Scott and Wendy Wray.

She was preceded in death by her father, Roy and mother, Edith.

Vada was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She will be greatly missed.
