

Bette Sitton-Salazar

April 27, 1948 - March 14, 2009

Bette Sitton-Salazar, 60, of Albany, found eternal rest early Saturday morning, March 14, after a long illness.

She was born in Jersey City, NJ, on April 27, 1948, the daughter of the late Elizabeth (Ward) and Joseph Tolomei. She was a successful and respected business owner in her life. In retirement, she enjoyed crafting, quilting, cooking and doing all of those things with her grandchildren and for her family. She is survived by her sister Shirley Lara of Lebanon; daughters Alicia O'Dell of Omak, Wash., Carrie Turk of Portland, and Sheri Sterling of Palm Springs, Calif.; grandchildren Alexandria and Braeden O'Dell, Abigail, Lillian and Joseph Turk, and Saber and Sage Sterling; and two loving to-the-end caregivers, Crystal Perez and Kristy Pirtle.

Her family wrote, "We go on with beautiful memories and the closeness and strength of a loving family...Her gift to us."
