

Betty Miller

November 24, 1932 - September 10, 2009

Gale Miller, born in Los Angeles, Calif., led a full life. Gale married Harold Miller when she was 22. Harold and Gale lived in California, Maine, Wyoming and Seattle, and settled in the Portland area in 1968. After Harold's death, Gale eventually moved to Corvallis, where she spent the last four years of her life.

Gale led a life of dedication to others. After graduation from University of Southern California and receiving a master's degree in library science, Gale went on to work most of her life as a librarian in Portland and at Hillsboro High School. Gale volunteered for many social causes throughout her life.

Gale is survived by her brother, John Pollet; and her children, Kirk Miller, Kim Moore and Kara Grey. Gale also enjoyed her six grandchildren.

A service in her honor will take place at 3 p.m. Monday, Sept. 21, at the Episcopal Church of the Good Samaritan, 333 N.W. 35th St. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Benton Hospice Service or the Church of the Good Samaritan.
