

Betty Walter

August 22, 1924 - July 15, 2007

Betty T. Walter, 82, of Philomath died Sunday in Corvallis.

She was born in Benton Harbor, Mich., to Julius and Mary Taylor Greene. Betty married Harry O. Walter on Oct. 1, 1944 in California. He died July 10, 1997.

She was one of Corvallis Manor's first employees when they opened and worked there for many years before retiring. She was an avid Bingo player. She loved her family dearly and enjoyed her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by daughters Carole Pape of Eugene and Sharon Lynn Dryden of Philomath; grandchildren Theodore Dryden of Fort Knox, Ky., Brittany Ann Mussatti of Albany, Michael and Bryce Dryden of Philomath; and great-grandchildren MacKenzie, Taylor and Addison Mussatti of Albany.

A gathering of family and friends was held Saturday, July 21, at Bevens Park in Philomath.

Memorials can be made to Benton Hospice Service.

Tribute Wall

BB

“ I am sorry we did not have enough time to talk about your mom. You were quite busy and we only had a few brief moments. I think we only discussed the 60's instead. I looked through all the pictures and noticed the resemblance between you (Carole) and your mom. It was good seeing you again. Brad.

---

Brad Berman - July 24, 2007 at 04:18 PM