

Bobby Clark

August 22, 1933 - November 25, 2009

Bobby Ray Clark, 76, of Albany died Wednesday at his home.

Bobby was born in Neosho, Mo., to James and Crissie (Bowling) Clark. He moved to Lebanon in 1949.

He married Bernita Ames; they later divorced. In 1973, Bobby married Pauline DeGarmo. Bobby worked for Cascade Plywood and Champion at the mill in Lebanon for 33 years. Bobby was a sports and outdoors enthusiast. He loved camping and fishing, golf, bowling, playing cards and roller hockey, and watching football. He started and ran the Elks bowling tournament for many years. He also started and ran Bingo at American Legion Post 51.

Bobby is survived by his wife, Pauline; children Yvonne McCloud of Maui, Robert Clark and Ricky DeGarmo of Albany, James Clark, Mike Clark and Diana Hunt of Lebanon, Leslie DeGarmo of Bend and Bernadette Smith of New York; brother Irly Clark and sister Jean Wilson of Missouri; sisters Velma Thogmartin and Marcialea Freeman of Lebanon; 18 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions can be made to Samaritan Evergreen Hospice.
