“ Brendan. 4th grade, Foothill Elementary. You were the new kid, and you arrived with no chip on your shoulder, just a friendly approach to all. Not easy as a kid. Even that early, you could make friends. Openness, genuineness, humor, bravery. What else makes such a true friend?

Honesty. You and I basically grew up together; crossed so many thresholds from childhood into adulthood together. Often to your parents' dismay.

Hi Mary, hi Rich. No words can express my sorrow and condolences. Only my thanks for being Brendan's parents, for your patience and understanding raising a very sensitive and creative soul. Thank you for tolerating all the nonsense... the memories are deep and meaningful, if that helps.

Anyways, Brendan. All of us who knew you, who KNOW you, carry a better humor, a better toughness, a better skin, and a better heart for having been your friend. Godspeed man.

“ Thank you Brendan? for helping me through my first year of college. I'll never forget late night chess amd coffee, Madden and Weinhard's or potato guns and Potts - You left an indelible mark on a young impressionable man and I am a better person having known you. Goodbye my friend, rest in peace.
