Daniel “Danny” George Morales

May 12, 1958-August 22, 2017

Daniel Morales, 59, passed away unexpectedly on August 22, 2017 in Corvallis, Oregon. Danny was born on May 12, 1958 in Palo Alto, California to parents Marilyn and George Morales. Danny spent his early years between Mt. View and Cupertino, California where he attended Lynbrook High School and continued on to San Jose State University. Danny loved traveling to Mexico with his family, riding his Harley Davidson “Fat Boy,” rooting for the San Francisco Giants, enjoying a Cohiba cigar in the summer and sipping a good cup of black coffee. He will be remembered for his theatrical storytelling, undeniable sense of humor and unwavering love for his family.

Danny will live on through his two daughters, Taylor-Anne Morales of Walnut Grove, California and Madison Morales of Bend, Oregon. He is also survived by his parents Marilyn and George Morales and family.

His family paid this tribute to him,

‘Danny was one of the warmest people you will ever meet, with the ability to make anyone laugh. We will take pride in continuing his legacy of hard work mixed with plenty of love and laughter. He will be missed beyond measure.’

“ My heart goes out to all of those he loved so much. I know he loved his girls and grandson very much. I know there is a hole in those hearts right now, but the love of his memory will fill it back up. I know he will be missed dearly. I so appreciated all the kind things he did for my daughter, along with Barb, when she needed help in Bend. I also have wonderful memories of many good times together sharing wine and love of our families. I know I was a bit of a pain to work with, but he always tried to keep a good face even when he wished otherwise. He was a very sunny guy. Much love to all of you who are suffering his lost. May he be at peace and may your pain melt into love.

“ Danny was part of our big, loveable Gemco family and also a high school classmate. I remember him as having a kind heart, a gentle smile, and always a nice word to say. Marilyn and George, you are in my thoughts, as are Barb and their girls. Once the raw grief phase passes, remember what you were to him and did for him in his life.

Dan was a tremendous person. I do appreciate Dan's time in our lives. His seriousness was balanced with great humor. His choice of words were always an adventure in vocabulary. Dan's sense of design and style were admirable. And his penchant for orderliness (& and all things antibacterial) were beyond the average Joe's realm of understanding. The Dan I knew loved (and was loved by) his family and friends beyond measure. And most importantly, Dan as a deeply God loving man. Praying he is in a better place now. Wishing we could have enjoyed one more time together. Confident that Dan is in God's hands now, and will be there, ready to meet again down the road.
