“ I knew Darlene in the late 1990s when we were both at Chico State. I've been trying to find her on social media so I was shocked and saddened to read about her passing.

“ My heart hurts hearing of this sad news. I worked with Dar for a fairly short time. On the one project I worked with her on, I was so impressed with her positivity (even in challenging things) and willingness to jump in with both feet and help. She had plenty of smiles to give to light up the day. I'm praying for her family and everyone that was close to her. Rest In Peace my dear coworker. <3

“ I worked with Dar at OED. I will miss here sense of humor, quick wit, and ability to work through anything with a positive attitude!

Thank you for your exuberance, joy, and positivity. You will be missed, Dar.

“ I worked with Dar starting in January of 2021. She was very welcoming to me personally, and shared very openly about her life. I admired her passion for the things she believed in.

I was saddened when I heard the news of her passing, and I convey my condolences to those who loved Dar.

Dar, thank you for all your contributions in this life, and sharing your unique gifts! You had a bigger impact than you know! I'm sure you are off on your next adventure already!

“ I knew Dar from work--she included others so easily. I know she'd faced many physical struggles, but she met her challenges with a sense of humor. As she completed her journey on this plane, I wish her peace and send comfort to her family and friends who miss her.

“ What struck me when Darlene first started working with us was how intentional and earnest she was. She was also very willing to listen to different points of view or new information and almost always kept a smiling face and presence about her even in the face of adversity. Like Lynn, I will also be praying for a heaven full of F1 cars and even more the opportunity to drive one!

“ My family and I are very sorry for your loss. I met Dar close to 6 years ago and got to know her, at least as much to know that she was kind and caring but fierce when she felt strongly and passionately. It was an honor to know her, and to sit next to her for the time we had and to get to know her spirit. I hope you have peace.

“ Condolences to your family. Dar was very welcoming of her work team, and worked hard to ensure that everyone felt included. She worked hard to learn more about and appreciate each person's uniqueness. I appreciated Dar's passion for all animals, especially for her cat, Annie, and I enjoyed all the silly stories she would share with us about Annie's adventures. Rest in peace, Dar. May you fly with the angels surrounded by everything that you love.

My thoughts are with you all,

Martha

“ Dar was quick to encourage our work team and generous with her appreciation of the strengths and gifts we each brought to the group. I appreciated how intentional she was to welcome new members as we added them, and so willing to offer a helping hand. I wish for her a heaven full of Formula 1 cars and the chance to drive her very own...

Sincerest condolences to you all,

Lynn
