Taken 10-7-19 and sent to me. She loved this place. I had the privilege to watch it go from rags to riches in beauty. She had a wonderful way of working with Mother Nature. This photo is like a beautiful painting.

*Early morning snow.
Selfie from Deb to Stephanie*

*She was my soul sister, my heart, my best friend.
One birthday she took me on a hike and picnic at the top of Mary's peak. It was a beautiful sunny day. We always laughed so much together. We had so many adventures out and about. I will miss her everyday. Seriously, if we missed a day of talking with each other we would actually missed each other.*

“ A prayer for my best friend for the past 40+ years. She was a beautiful woman with a beautiful spirit.

As I Walk with Beauty~ A Navajo Prayer

*As I walk, as I walk
The universe is walking with me
In beauty it walks before me
In beauty it walks behind me
In beauty it walks below me
In beauty it walks above me
As I walk, I walk with beauty.*

Deb was a woman of the earth that loved nature. She is free now to fly with her beloved Blue Birds.

She was well loved and we will miss her until the day we meet on the other side. 💔

Back in the mid 80's, while I was attending Highland Middle School, just down the road from their house, my parents went and left me in Oregon while they made an escape to the Caribbean. I stayed for 2 weeks at Deb's house and I, too, felt like I was on vacation. The food! Man, that was the best part! Who knew green salad can be so good? And pasta, man, those big ol' bowls! I thoroughly enjoyed my time there. She was the best. Deb, we'll miss you terribly. Love you, my friend.
