

Edward James Barker

September 10, 1941 - October 20, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

JR

“ Edward barker was a great man he served in the Vietnam war he was what you called a diamond in the rough he was a trained assassin he came back and everyone scorned him his own family disowned him and was scared of him but if you got to know him for who he really was and not an fake image of who or what you thought he was he was actually a really nice person and all the fake crap that the city of corvallis oregon put on him is all really all the make of a little girl that didn't want to give him his money back so she made up a lie and got a cop for a boyfriend that eventually killed him and left him face first in the mud by the river dead with his face bashed in by the cops own hands what a parody that never made it to the media did it

johny rebel - February 04, 2016 at 02:43 AM