

Elaine White

May 25, 1922 - January 5, 2010

Elaine Booke White, 87, of Corvallis died of age-related causes on Tuesday at Corvallis Manor.

Elaine was born to Henry Booke and Frena Bandley on May 25, 1922, in Provo, Utah. She lived at home when she met Louis Cook at age 21. They married and moved to Vancouver, Wash., where they welcomed two children into their lives, Louis Craig and Danise Kimberly. Louis died in 1953, and Elaine later married Philip Arthur White; the family moved to Corvallis, where Phil opened his own business and they raised their family.

Elaine enjoyed golfing, sports and her grandchildren. She was known for her wit and sense of humor.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Philip White, in 1996. She is survived by her son, Louis Craig (Bobbie Lee) of Albany; daughter Danise McKennett (Mike) of Gresham; and two grandchildren, Craig and Kimberly McKennett of Gresham.

No services will be held. A celebration of life will be scheduled at a later date.

The family would like to thank the caregivers at Corvallis Manor who befriended Elaine and took such wonderful care of her.
