

Esther Dawn White

June 6, 1982 - October 10, 2024

Esther Dawn White

Age 42 lost her battle with BRCA2 positive inflammatory metastatic breast cancer on Thursday, October 10, 2024.

Born June 6, 1982, in Ashland, Oregon, Esther was the youngest daughter of William Joseph and Bonnie Faye (Tendick) White.

Esther was first, an artist, in every sense of the word. From her career as an esthetician, cosmetologist, and natural hair stylist to designing her own clothing and jewelry line, affectionately known as “Inner Goddess Threads.” Esther’s ability to see beauty in all enabled her to excel in her trades. Esther was, second, a healer. Aside from her artistic pursuits and achievements, Esther was also a Reiki I & II healer and was working towards a career in Art Therapy at PSU.

Esther embodied love, light, and beauty. Her uncanny ability to bring people together and create a safe loving community provided a sense of tribe for many. Her mantra: “Live, Love, Matter,” can be seen and experienced in all that she represented. She was pure light and her passing leaves only darkness.

Esther fully lived, deeply loved, and truly mattered. She will be missed by all who know her.

Esther is survived by her children: Jasmine White, Quincey White, and Justize Taylor; sister: Sarrha White; mother: Bonnie White, and nephews: Lakotah, Wyatt, and Talon Uffelman.

She is preceded in death by her father: William Joseph White.

A celebration of Esther's life will be held on Saturday, November 2, 2024, beginning at 3:00 p.m. at the Klecker Ballroom, 235 N 2nd Avenue in Stayton, OR 97383.

“Esther was a wonderful soul filled with lots of love and knowledge. We would talk about politics, religion, being biracial, love and life. She would send me inspiring messages. We wanted to live off grid. We wanted to get in the car and just drive away... But she got weak quickly. She made the cutest cloths for her dog and she loved him with her whole heart. She made wonderful vegan food and she loved gardening. I met her in highschool one day we skipped school and completely destroyed Sarah's car 😬😬 Good thing it was like an iron made car... There was a long pause in our friendship but once we found eachother we stayed solid. She would tell me to not go out if she felt a bad feeling... She was a wonder women... Her messages are missed... I will never forget about you ❤️
