

Fred A. Lincoln

July 23, 1922 - February 10, 2016

July 23, 1922 — Feb. 10, 2016

Fred Lincoln passed away on Feb. 10 surrounded by his loving wife and friends.

He was born in Torrance, California, on July 23, 1922, to Frederick and Leona Lincoln. He was the youngest of their four children. He was preceded in death by sisters Margaret, Millicent and Marian. He and his first wife, Lorita, had five children: David (deceased), Dale (wife Susan), Johnny (deceased), Merrilee Corder (husband Jim) and Douglas (deceased).

On June 5, 1988, he married Charlene Lincoln in Torrance, California, and became the stepdad of her four children, Charles Fowler (wife Kelsea, granddaughter Amethyst), David Fowler, Stacey Feiertag (husband Tom, grandchildren Michael and Melissa) and Jennifer Wirt (husband William, grandchildren Matthew and Savana) and several great-grandchildren.

In 1996 he and Charlene moved to Corvallis. "The best thing we ever did" and will be remembered for saying every day, "Another beautiful day in Corvallis."

He was most proud of his military service, training and graduating 17 fighter pilots and retiring as a pilot and major in the Air Force. Most of his career was in aerospace. At Boeing Corporation he worked on helping to create the B2 stealth bomber.

He felt very blessed to have had so many loving friends and family and will be greatly missed by all of them. He touched many lives and leaves all of us with many wonderful memories. He also leaves his little dog, Sassy, his constant companion.

Fred was a humble, gentle soul who loved and celebrated life to the fullest each day and was proud to be a Christian.

A celebration of life will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 12, at the First Christian Church in Corvallis, 602 S.W. Madison St.

Memorial contributions may be made to the First Christian Church in his name.
