

Gertrude Lucille Schwahn

October 2, 1931 - October 28, 2010

Gertrude “Trudy” Lucille Schwahn, 79, of Corvallis died of natural causes on Thursday in Lebanon.

She was born in Finlayson, Minn., to Arne and Ellen Marie Arnesen. Trudy was a resident of Corvallis for 33 years. She retired from Hewlett-Packard Co. after 20 years of service. Being a loving mother and grandmother was her greatest asset. She enjoyed walking, reading and travel. She will be greatly missed.

Survivors include sons Dan Schwahn, John Schwahn and Dennis Schwahn; daughters Trudy Brodeur, JoAnne Williams and Melinda Creswick; and eight grandchildren.

A private ceremony will take place. In lieu of flowers, make contributions to the Alzheimer’s Association or your favorite charity.

“ I so enjoyed visiting Gertrude but the time was way too short! Gertrude was the most gracious and grateful person I have ever met. She reminded me of Queen Elizabeth and she could have taken her place in advanced social skills. Except for the last day I was with her, I never heard a complaint but instead joy in life and praise for all who helped her in any tiny way.
