

Gregory Neil Arnold

September 12, 1966 - November 13, 2025

Gregory Neil Arnold passed away on November 13, 2025 in Corvallis Oregon . He was 59 years old.

Born on September 12, 1966 in Marietta Georgia, Greg spent his early years in the South before eventually making his way to Oregon.

Over the course of his life, he worked as a plumber for several years, dedicating himself to a trade that required both skill and perseverance.

Greg had a love for music and found joy in listening to Ozzy Osbourne. He also had a fondness for working on his truck. His love for camo attire showed his personality and preferences

Greg is remembered by his daughter Charley Arnold, his sister Sherry Arnold, and his nephew Douglas Stanfield. He is preceded in death by his father Jack Arnold and his mother Jackie Arnold.

May his memory bring comfort to those that knew him.
