Herbert Berman

March 24, 1927 -Aug. 17, 2014

Herbert Berman was born in Brooklyn, New York, the oldest child of Sam and Fannie Berman.

He is survived by his wife, Regina Berman; children, Stephen Berman, Leigh Berman, Glenn Berman, Corrie Berman and Bonnie Berman, and their spouses and children; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and sisters Anita Berman and Shirley Aigen, and their spouses and children.

Herbert was a World War II U.S. Navy veteran. He was a master electrician in New York, and his first love was art. He started in abstract painting and fell in love with the Old Masters. He was an artist in residence at the Salmangundi Club in New York. In 1996, he moved to Corvallis. Here he enjoyed his art, Oregon and his retirement.

His work has appeared at Pegasus Gallery, and he was the artist in residence at the former Forrest-Temple Galleries. His work can be seen at some restaurants in town, and also at Pegasus Gallery and Broderick Gallery in Longview, Washington. His life was art, and he made the world a more beautiful place in which to live.

To honor his memory, art supplies or financial support can be donated to the schools in Linn and Benton counties to keep the love of art going, and his memory alive. Special thanks to the Transitions Program at Benton Hospice Service, Visiting Angels and Samaritan Home Health Services. “ I have known Herb ever since I was a young boy, since he was the son of my landlords, Sam and Fanny in Canarsie, Brooklyn. I remember him as a quiet and gentle person. He was always very nice to me and my mom, Alice. Every time I went to Sam and Fanny's apartment, I was always fascinated with Herb's artwork. It was proudly hung up around the apartment. I became friends with Bonnie and Glenn and I am happy that we became friends (with Corrie) on Facebook.

“ I never had the privilege of meeting this wonderful man but he gave me a wonderful sister for a life time- Bonnie Berman. And for that I am truly grateful. May he rest in peace.

“ Herbie had a generous and loving soul which showed itself in his dazzling smile and sense of humor. I loved Herbie's paintings. I loved his casual style of teaching and his joy in life and "C'est la vie" attitude. Our art community will miss him greatly as will his long time students who names I confuse but will know them by their talented work under his guidance.. I pray for Regina and the rest of Herbie's family during this time of loss. He cannot be replaced but we did have his light for a little while. We have been blessed. Sleep well Herbie.....

Love,

Toni
