

Howard Lohan

March 16, 1946 - April 20, 2010

Howard Michael Lohan ("Skip" to his family), 64, of Corvallis passed away quietly on April 20, 2010, in his home.

Howard was born March 16, 1946, to Paul and Ruby Lohan, and lived his entire life in Oregon. Howard was a deeply patriotic man who loved Harley-Davidson motorcycles, Elvis Presley and, most of all, his mother. Howard worked in the wood shop of Cornerstone Association Inc. for most of his adult life.

He was an avid bowler, and for many years loved to participate in Special Olympics. Howard also loved to travel and sightsee. One of his favorite destinations was Disneyland.

Known within the Corvallis community as a very friendly and happy man, Howard liked to share his joy. He always had a smile and a wave for those around him. Howard will truly be missed.

Howard is survived by his sister, Judy Taylor of Matauga, Texas. He was preceded in death by his parents and his two brothers, Patrick and Gary. A memorial service will take place at 3:30 p.m. April 29 at Zion Lutheran Church, 2800 N.W. Tyler Ave., Corvallis.

A graveside interment will be held at 11 a.m. the following day at the International Order of Odd Fellows Cemetery, 4343 Witham Hill Drive in Corvallis, where Howard will be interred alongside his beloved grandmother, Vivian M. Clark. Memorial donations can be made in Howard's name to Home Life Inc., 2068 N.W. Fillmore Ave., Corvallis, OR 97330.
