

Imogene Marvin

February 15, 1933 - December 3, 2010

Jean Marvin died Friday at Samaritan Village in Corvallis. She was 77 years old.

Jean was born and raised in North Carolina. As a young adult, she moved to Los Angeles, Calif. In L.A., Jean worked for many years as an executive secretary for the United Food & Commercial Workers Local 770 while she supported and raised her son. Jean expressed her love of music by working in the department of ethnomusicology at University of California, Los Angeles, and volunteering for the Country Music Association.

In 1997, Jean moved to Corvallis to be near her son and his family. Jean loved to read and listen to country music. She enjoyed spending time with her family and with her friends at Samaritan Village. Jean had a fun sense of humor, and was a loyal friend.

Jean is survived by her son, Scot Marvin of Corvallis; her sister, Mary Lou Hurlock of San Antonio, Texas; and three grandchildren. Jean was preceded in death by her brother, Robert McDonald.

A memorial gathering for Jean will take place at 2 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 10, at the Episcopal Church of the Good Samaritan, 333 N.W. 35th St., Corvallis. Memorial contributions can be made to Samaritan Village, 285 N.W. 35th St., Corvallis, OR 97330.
