

Jacob Gatchet

August 26, 1983 - March 29, 2011

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the death of our beloved Jacob. He was only 27 years young. Jacob was born in Fort Polk, La., to Mae Jean and Robert Dale. He went to school in Philomath, and was a cook at Ruby Tuesday in Corvallis.

To know Jacob was to love him. He was a kind, gentle, quiet young man with a great sense of humor and a beautiful smile.

Unfortunately, he didn't realize how many people loved him and how much he had to live for.

He is survived by his greatest love and joy, his son, Devin Lucas Gatchet.

Jacob shined when he was with his son. He loved him so much, and Devin loved him. Jacob loved teaching Devin new things, and was looking forward to sharing his hobbies - fishing, hunting and being outdoors - with him.

Jacob is also survived by his parents: father, Robert Gatchet, and mother and stepfather Mae Jean and Russell Dickason; siblings Heidi Marie McKnight and Antonio Anaya-Youngquist; ex-wife, Danielle Dickason; and best friend, T.J. Collins. He is also survived by many loving grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Jared Matthew Gatchet; and grandfather, M. John Youngquist.

A private graveside service will take place at Blodgett Cemetery.

A celebration of Jacob's life, including a potluck, is set for 2 p.m. Sunday, April 3, at Blodgett Elementary School.

Be at peace now, our sweet Jacob.
