

Jeff Bullis

November 12, 1955 - December 17, 2025

Jeff Bullis, 70, died on December 17, 2025 in Albany, Oregon of complications from heart failure.

Jeff was born on November 12, 1955 in Spokane, Washington to Stanley and Sally (Blankenhorn) Bullis.

He was predeceased by his parents; brothers, Jim and John; and stepdaughter, Stephenie.

He is survived by his wife, Lori Bullis of Corvallis, Oregon and brother, Joe Bullis (Lila) of Bullhead City, Arizona.

Jeff is survived by his children Jeremy (Carmen), Jacob (Heather) and Jaci (David); and stepdaughters Kristy and Patricia.

He is also survived by 12 grandchildren: June, JJ, Jayce, Jack, Alex, Angela, Xavier, Darien, Aurora, Ben, Anaya, and Nymara.

Jeff obtained an AA in electronics from Spokane Community College and was employed with Hewlett-Packard in Spokane and Corvallis.

Jeff obtained his Culinary Arts degree from Linn-Benton Community College in Albany and then opened a franchise pizza joint called Nick-n-Willy's.

Soon, Jeff found himself employed as a network engineer working for Polycom, from where he retired in the fall of 2018.

Above all, Jeff loved and cherished his children and grandchildren.

Jeff loved classic British cars, particularly Triumphs, and owned several beginning in high school. He was a member of the British Car Club in Spokane and Corvallis.

Jeff thoroughly enjoyed and was well known for his culinary skills, wowing friends and family!

We will never forget hosting about 35 people for a crab cioppino dinner, and the room becoming silent as our guests savored/enjoyed their meal, or Jeff's enjoyment and delight in creating flaming cherries jubilee for family and friends.

While living in Spokane, Jeff was an active member of the local Kiwanis club and was a two-time president.

Jeff relished summer vacations at Grandview Resort on Priest Lake in the Idaho Panhandle, where he made cherished memories in his childhood and with his children.

Jeff was an exceptional card player and teacher of cribbage and pinochle.
