“ Jeff was my journeyman after getting into the electricians union. I can't think of a better dude I've met in the union. Everything worthwhile I learned in that time was from him. Both as an electrician and as a young man trying to shape up and find my place in the world. The amount of respect and love I still feel for him is immeasurable. Sadly with everything going on in the world at the time I didn't get a chance to see him again. Love you Jeff. RIP.

“ I didn't know Jeff very long. However, I so appreciated his calm, gentle manner. And what a terrific musician he was i loved the harmony between him and Teresa.

“ I AM JEFF'S COUSIN, LESLIE. I HAVE SO MANY FOND MEMORIES OF ALL THE COUSINS GOING TO GRAMMA AND GRAMPA KINGS HOUSE. WE DIDN'T GET TO SEE EACH OTHER A LOT BUT WHEN WE GOT TOGETHER IT WAS SO FUN. THE GROWN-UPS PLAYED CARDS AND WE JUST RAN WILD. EVERY ONE OF US PLAYED WITH THOSE POKER CHIPS! I AM SO GLAD I GOT TO SEE JEFF RECENTLY. WE WERE BORN 10 MONTHS APART. I LOVED JEFF. TO ALL HIS FAMILY, KNOW MY THOUGHTS ARE WITH YOU AT THIS TIME.

“ I'll always remember him with his ponytail and a guitar in his hand. When I was a kid he was always playing it with everyone listening. No one in the family could help but smile when Uncle Jeff was playing his guitar.

Crabbing, we got a slew of crab. Enough we were able to trade crab for wine with a winery!

“ I'm dear Jeff's big brother, Chris. It's hard to imagine picking a memory to share about a man who was so much to so many. My life was so much richer for having a brother like Jeff. Our family was large, and being the older brother, I liked to help My dear Mom with the younger children. Jeff was a little devil, and relentless. He was the ninety pound middle linebacker, who wouldn't quit. Everyone outweighed him by so much, but he would not give up. He was the teenager who was convinced that he must learn to play the scales perfectly, drove himself and taught himself classical guitar.

During his final illness, he fought until unfortunately he lost. He didn't give up. Lucky for him though was having his dear wife Teresa at his side. If she could have willed him to recover she would have. Our family will always be in her debt.

So as rich as Jeff made my life, not having him to grow old together with, heartbreaking.

As I said to him at he end, We'll see you when I see you". He hated goodbyes, and boy do I hate this one.

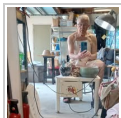

Love you forever bro!

Thank you for taking such good care of him. Because of the virus, I couldn't visit him before he died. It was so difficult. The only consolation was knowing you were at his side. Thank you dear Teresa, love always!
