June 13, 1955 - May 1, 2014

Joan Marie Hunter

June 13, 1955 – May 1, 2014

Joanie Hunter, 58, of Corvallis, died peacefully on Thursday, May 1 at the Samaritan Evergreen Hospice.

Joanie has resided in the Philomath/Corvallis area most of her life. She worked at the Corvallis Clinic for 23 years and Samaritan Health Services for 6 years.

Having been diagnosed with breast cancer back in 2006, Joanie struggled with various health issues ever since. Despite many struggles, she spent the last few years of her life giving back to others by making quilts for cancer patients. Joanie was featured in a Gazette Times article back in December 22, 2013.

A memorial service including a Rosary is set for Tuesday, May 6, at 7:00 p.m. at the DeMoss Durdan Funeral Home, 815 NW Buchanan Street, Corvallis

Joanie will be buried next to her husband at Alsea Cemetery.

“ I've known Joanie for 20 years. She was my first supervisor at Corvallis Clinic, and I feel fortunate to be able to call her a friend. She was one of the most kind, gentle and caring individuals I've had the pleasure of knowing. Heaven had gained a precious angel, and I will miss her dearly.

“ I was not prepared to hear the sad news of Joanie's passing. I have known Joanie for 45 years through the ups and downs, laughter and sadness. Through it all she was the most positive person I have ever known. Never giving up and always there to lend a hand to anyone who needed it. I will never forget this wonderful lady who was the best friend anyone could ask for. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. I love you and miss you. Teri (Quetschke) Stephens
