John Joseph Lobdell, Jr.

May 29, 1953 – October 15, 2021

John (John J) was born in Salem, Oregon on May 29, 1953, to John and Mary Lobdell.

The oldest of six children John J was the leader of the pack. He was known for being a car enthusiast and a lover of music that rubbed off on several of his siblings.

John J attended the University of Oregon where he studied finance and subsequently joined the United States Marine Corps achieving the rank of corporal before his honorable discharge in 1982. He received a sharpshooter, rifle expert badges and a meritorious service medal.

Over the last decade John worked for LionBridge supporting Hewlett Packard in their printer cartridge division. He died of natural causes at the age of 68. John is survived by his brothers Richard and Jim, sisters Mary and Ann and preceded in death by his father John, mother Mary and brother Patrick.

His family loves him and will miss him dearly but are grateful he is now at peace with the Lord.

Services will be held at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Corvallis, Oregon on Tuesday, November 30th at 10 a.m.
