

Jonathan Grey

April 23, 1975 - August 8, 2012

Jonathan Bradley Grey, 37, of Lebanon, died suddenly on Aug. 8. His wife of nearly four years, Laura, was by his side.

Jon was a concrete finisher until becoming disabled in 2007. Prior to employment, he attended Corvallis High School and Linn-Benton Community College.

All are welcome to attend his memorial service at 6 p.m., Sept. 4, at Oak Creek Christian Center, 5775 Columbus St. SE, in Albany.

Jon is survived by his wife Laura, son Jason Alexander; stepson CJ Lutton, and stepdaughters Brayde and Xander Lutton. He is also survived by his mother, Linda (Gray) White of Depoe Bay and father Jim Gray of Corvallis; siblings Jay and Rachel Grey, Jenny and Randy Witherspoon, and Jeremy Grey, all of Albany. Other survivors include his mother-in-law, Kristine Pierce of Corvallis, and brother- and sister-in law, Steve and Jaime Pierce of Helena, Mont.; aunts Molly Mossman of Corvallis and Laurie Lamoine of Anchorage, Alaska; cousin Hailey Machlan of Portland; grandmother Dorothy Barges of Corvallis; and 11 nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Arlene Forster.

An account for memorial donations to help defray expenses has been set up at US Bank.

“Dear Grey Family, Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your dear loved one Jonathan. May it comfort you to know that our Heavenly Father has lovingly promised to reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions that will be filled with peace, happiness, and perfect health in the near future. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24) May this precious hope, along with loving memories of Jonathan, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Rest assured that God will do all that He has promised. (Hebrews 6:18) My deepest sympathy to you.
