“ Joe and I had many enjoyable conversations during my four years as Mayor. I was impressed with his dedication to covering many public meetings and events for the Corvallis Tidbits. He also still found time to pursue his many other interests and also enjoy family time. He struck me as a man who lived a full and active life every day. I will miss seeing him. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ Joe Raia was one of my favorite people in town. We shared interests in hiking and community affairs, and I greatly enjoyed the annual photo spreads on his tomatoes and the rest of his garden. Fine gentleman ... he will be sorely missed.
