

Joy Carla Phillips

February 4, 1934 - December 12, 2025

Joy Carla Phillips was born February 4, 1934 in Switzerland. She moved to America when she was a teenager and spent the rest of her life here. Joy was a wonderful artist, creating many beautiful works of art in sculpture, paint, pencil and other mediums. She generously shared her art with others. At the end of her life, she spent a lot of time drawing pictures of people's loved ones, animal and human, which she would give as gifts.

Joy had 3 children, Cynthia, William and Ezra. She had 2 sisters, Maria and Nelda, and her step children whom she loved, Aaron, Brent, Eugene, Darryl and Janet. She had many grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends, especially Berthold Huber, whom she loved very much also. She had a wonderful, loving and happy marriage with Bill Phillips who passed before her in 2017.

For the last 8 years of her life she lived with her daughter in Oregon. They spent their time together happily with lots of love and laughter every day. They were each other's best friend and they went on many adventures together, exploring the beauty all around them in the Oregon forests and beaches. At the time of her death she was still walking daily and exercising.

Joy was a beautiful person, inside and out. She didn't hold grudges and always saw the best in others. She was an optimist all her life. She made the world and the people around her better for knowing her. She was a deeply spiritual person, and God and Jesus came first in her life. She was deeply loved, and, is now deeply missed. She will never be forgotten. She passed suddenly at home on December 12, 2025, which was exactly how she wanted it.
