

Kathryn A. Honey

December 19, 1932 - January 4, 2025

Kathryn Ann Honey, 92, died, at Conifer House Residential Care and Memory Care in Corvallis, Oregon on Saturday January 4th at 5:30 p.m.

She was born in Portland, Oregon to James and Ella Copp. She had one brother, Burtran. She lived on farms in the north Willamette Valley and graduated from Perrydale High School in 1951. She graduated from Oregon State University with a Bachelors and Masters degree in Home Economics and taught Home Economics at Mill City, Oregon. She also taught Clothing Construction at Lane Community College and Linn Benton Community College.

She met and married Charles George Honey in 1956 while attending Oregon State University. Kathryn & Charles made their home in Corvallis where they raised three children, James Sydney, Brian Scott and Debra Kay. Kathryn was a loving Mother, frugal Homemaker, talented Artist, avid Gardener and accomplished Seamstress as evidence by all the clothing and home goods she sewed, flowers and vegetables she grew, watercolor paintings she made and successful children she raised.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Charles Honey. She is survived by a son James Honey (Lynn) of Corvallis Oregon, a son Brian Honey of Marietta Georgia, and a daughter Debra Zeller (James) of Corvallis, and six grandchildren: David Zeller of Corvallis Oregon, Alexander Zeller of Corvallis Oregon, Charles Honey of Atlanta Georgia, Emily Honey of Creswell Oregon, Christina Carter of Watkinsville Georgia, Victoria Zeller of Missoula Montana, and three great grandchildren

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, March 8, 2025, at Grace Lutheran Church in Corvallis.
