February 24, 1942 - November 28, 2014

Larry Leroy Hebron, Mr. Snips, died Nov. 28 at Corvallis Caring Place.

He later moved to Oregon and eventually retired in Corvallis. He was a local legend at his favorite bar, Suds & Suds; his wind-surfer mural remains in the outside patio. An avid NASCAR fan, he enjoyed watching his favorite driver, Dale Earnhardt Jr., on the weekends.

He will forever live on in the hearts of his two sons, daughter, family and friends who were lucky enough to know him. RIP, Mr. Snips!

He was preceded in death by his parents. Survivors include sons Archie Earl Hebron of Albany and Daniel David Hebron on Jenner, California; daughter Holly Eldredge of Cicero, Indiana; brothers Mike Fortney of Oskaloosa and Craig Fortney of Moorhead, Minnesota; and seven grandchildren.
