Linda M. Campbell

Oct. 12, 1953- Feb. 10, 2016

Linda M. Campbell, long-time resident of Corvallis, died Wednesday, February 10, 2016 at her home, surrounded by her family.

Linda was born in Portland, OR to Donald and Maxine Simpson. In 1984, she married the love of her life, Jim Campbell. They were married for almost 32 years.

Linda favorite thing was hanging out with friends and family. She loved camping and taking care of her dogs, Angel and Sissy. They were her babies. Linda enjoyed working with stained glass, cooking and gardening.

She is preceded in death by her parents; and brothers, Patrick and Denny. Linda is survived by her loving husband, Jim; son, Christen Botel; sister, LuAnn May; many nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Family and friends are invited to her Celebration of Life, 10:00 am, Friday, February 19th at DeMoss-Durdan funeral chapel, 815 NW Buchanan Ave., Corvallis. Please share your thoughts and memories for the family at www.demossdurdan.com “ Jim, I am sorry to hear of Linda's passing, though it has been many years since I've seen her due to life moving in different direction, some of my best good time memories were with you both riding quads behind your house, numerous gatherings at your house and with always good food:) and of course all the camping trips at Green Peter and Central Oregon. May God comfort you in your loss and may Linda rest in peace.

“ I didn't know Linda, but I knew of her because my name is also Linda Campbell, I live in Philomath, & my birth year is one digit different from hers - Samaritan sometimes got us mixed up. I was unexpectedly very moved to hear of her passing & want to extend my condolences to all who knew and loved her. May the Great Spirit of All comfort you & may Linda rest in peace.

“ Linda was one of the most courageous people I have known. She was in constant pain the past six years, but was able to function and do her chores even though these were VERY difficult for her. I admire her and will miss her very much.
