

Lloyd Dell Burke

May 14, 1931 - December 16, 2013

May 14, 1931 — Dec. 16, 2013

Lloyd Burke peacefully passed away Dec. 16, 2013, at his home in Corvallis. He was 82 years old.

Lloyd was born on the 14th day in the fifth month of 1931 to Nellie and Henry Burke in Drumright, Okla.

Lloyd was described as a free spirit who often went where the wind took him, whether to Arizona or to helping build the foundations of Disneyland in the 1950s.

Lloyd finally settled in Oregon in the 1980s, and proudly and independently lived in his apartment until his passing.

Lloyd is survived by his wonderful sister, Janice Striplin of Albany, who spent many years looking after her big brother; and numerous nieces and nephews. Lloyd also had many friends who took a role as a part of his family.

A memorial service has been arranged for 2 p.m. Dec. 23 at Demoss-Durdan Funeral Home. Memorial contributions can be made either to Grace Center for Adult Day Services or to Home Life.
