

Lois Lydall

March 30, 1925 - January 18, 2010

Lois Evelyn (Farver) Lydall, 84, of Albany, died Monday from complications of Alzheimer's.

She was born in Salem, the daughter of Ray and Valley Walling. Lois married Paul Jiggs Farver in 1945. They had two children, Sharon and Paul.

In 1967 she married Lyman Lydall and they lived many years in Albany area.

Lois was one of Jehovah's Witnesses for the last 57 years and attended the Crabtree Congregation. She was always friendly, hospitable, and well loved by all. She enjoyed reading and sharing Bible truths with the many persons she met. She also enjoyed spending time with her family, as well as camping, playing the organ and Jake her cat.

She is survived by her daughter Sharon and son-in-law Paul Sudar; son Paul Farver and daughter-in-law Melinda; grandsons Shane Farver of Bend, Cameron Farver of Albany, and Jeremy Sudar of Lebanon; and six great grandchildren, Nicholas, Colin, Taylor and Tiffany Farver and Julia and Paige Sudar.

She was preceded in death by her husband Lyman, brothers Jason Johnson, and Robert and George Walling.

Lois' family would like to extend their thanks to the nurses and staff at the Timberview Nursing Home in Albany for the kindness and care given to Lois during her short stay.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 23, at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Crabtree.
