August 18, 1930-July 7, 2014

Louisa “Faye” Callahan Fryer passed away Sunday, July 6, 2014 in Grants Pass, Oregon at the age of 83. She and her husband, William D. Fryer, have been residents of Corvallis since 1954.

Faye Fryer was born in Loa, Utah on August 18, 1930 with her twin brother, Lewis Ray Callahan to Jessie Myrtle Johnson and Joseph Irvin Callahan.

and later Croatia. They also managed the church camp in Alpine for 3 ½ years.

“ Our family has known Bill and Faye since 1962, when we moved from Seattle to Corvallis. We have enjoyed knowing them since then, and her vivacious nature.

“ Bill and Faye were wonderful friends of my parents Mike and Pauline Germaneri. They had many fun times playing the card game "Hand and Foot" and if they needed an extra player they recruited our daughter, Alison, who was 13 years old at the time and loved playing with them. It was so interesting to see Alison spending an evening at her grandparents playing cards with 70+ year old card sharks. She managed to hold her own. We loved talking politics with Faye; she was never shy about having a strong opinion on an issue which led to some passionate talks. Faye was a person that lived life with lots of passion and generosity. She was a blessing for those that got to spend time with her. We are sure Faye is in heaven with Bill hooking back up with Mike and Pauline for a game of Hand and Foot. Our family will always have fond memories of Faye and Bill.

“ Truly a joy to be with. She was my favorite Sunday School Teacher of all time when I was a teenager. Great worker, fine example and an elect lady.
