“ To Hank and the family, my thoughts of sympathy and comfort in the loss of a very special lady. Her life was filled with such an amazing succession of creative endeavors and helpfulness to others. I am glad for the short time she spent with me.

It was my lucky day when Maggie agreed to help me create a series of videos for a course I'd developed at OSU. She was the photographer, producer, and editor of our films recording people and historical sites from across the country. What fun we had travelling together. Her creativity and meticulous care were recorded in those films, while her humor and great generosity were recorded in my heart forever. (Those were the days when it was hard to predict what her latest hairdo or hair color might be). I will always be grateful for her many kindnesses and the warmth of her friendship. May Peace be with you at this difficult time.

Sincerely, Judy Li
