

Margaret Stagner

January 1, 1922 - February 19, 2010

Margaret Lillian Beach Stagner was born in Corvallis to Homer and Ernestine Beach. She graduated from Corvallis High School.

Margaret is survived by her husband Paul; son John Miner and his wife, Harriet; daughter Connie Lippman and her husband, Gary; five grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews; step-daughter Sharon Hohberg of Kansas, and Sharon's four children, 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her sisters Eloise Beach Gessford and Frances Appelgate White. Margaret loved crocheting and gardening, especially picking and eating fresh beans off the vine. Some of her favorite times were the hours spent fishing and traveling with Paul.

A private graveside service will be Friday at Oaklawn Memorial Park in Corvallis. A memorial service will be at 11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 27, at Waterloo Chapel, 39480 Gross Street in Waterloo. A meal will follow the service.
