“ We lived across the street from Marion and Bill for seventeen years. In all those years, no matter how dumb the activity I was involved in, whether it was building something, or trying to nurse a pathetic plant back to life, Marion always had a big smile on her face and made a positive comment about my machinations. And "how are your children?" And "Your cat is so pretty and friendly." were included in nearly all conversations.

She was one of the sweetest people that we ever knew, and the world is a poorer place without Marion and her boundless positivity.
