“ Your name was Michael Ross Carroll. I knew you as Karate Grandpa! You will for ever be the mysterious karate man in my mind. The tough guy with a soft heart. With your passing comes so much sadness. But I look forward to the future when we can meet again. Rest easy now that you're not in pain. I hope you're king fu fighting on the other side.

Michael worked diligently at his career and his fitness. He shared that passion for fitness with so many through Carroll's Tae Kwon Do Dojo in Corvallis and his participation in tournaments statewide. His greatest accomplishments were his two daughters Joy Laudahl and Sara Richardson and thir children. His grandchildren are Michael Laudahl, Stephanie Reed Bigham, Sebastian, Wolfgang and Pippa Richardson. He left a legacy.
