

Muriel Corcoran

March 19, 2008

Muriel A. Corcoran died at home in Corvallis on March 19 at 95. She was born Aug. 6, 1912, to John L. and Augusta Schultz Corcoran in Jamaica, New York. She was an executive secretary in New York City for 40 years.

In 1999, Muriel moved to Corvallis with her sister Margaret Gross to be near their brother, William Corcoran. She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church. Survivors include her brother, Bill, his wife, Jane, and three generations of nieces and nephews in Oregon and Texas.

A private family memorial service will be at a later date.
