“ I have great memories of playing the blues with Ramblin Rex at First Christian Church in Corvallis. He had a great heart for people and loved the Lord. Peace, Paul Boling

“ I've enjoyed Rex's music for I don't know how long. I didn't really know him, but if I talked to him, he acted like he knew me. What a great bluesman.

“ Rex was the epitome of a mild mannered, humble man. He knew how to take life one day at a time and I was privileged to have known him.

Rex knew two important things, how to play the blues, and that Jesus died so that he might have eternal life!

A beautiful soul that touched the hearts of so many through not only music but tender loving council and deeds. He sings with the angels now. He will be in our hearts always.

Living in Prague in the early 90s, had the opportunity not just to hear Rex perform, but to spend many an hour in deep conversation with the man. I took many spiritual lessons from these conversations. He made a difference in my life.
