

Robert Aylward

February 28, 1931 - May 16, 2008

Bob was born in Walla Walla, Wash., attended Cheney College, then joined the military and served in the Marines in Korea. He married Marilyn Louise Armes and was blessed with 37 years of marriage.

Bob's career was as an air traffic controller in Pocatello, Idaho. After health difficulties, they moved to Corvallis, where Bob and Marilyn became longtime residents. Bob was an active volunteer for hospice and meals on wheels. He also volunteered as a bailiff for the Corvallis Municipal Court for more than 25 years. He enjoyed golf and woodworking in his earlier years and was an active member of the Church of Corvallis Nazarene.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Marilyn Aylward, and son Craig Aylward. Survivors include his daughter, Terrie Leach of Corvallis; granddaughters Brianna Baum of Corvallis and Chaleen Farrand of Monmouth; great-grandson, Tyler Farrand of Monmouth; and a sister Shirley James of Maryland.

A Memorial service was held Tuesday, May 20, in the DeMoss-Durdan Garden Chapel.

Private interment will be held in the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Walla Walla, Wash.
