“ Bob I am going to miss you my friend. I will miss your sense of humor, your friendship and most of all, our one on one chat. The memories we've shared during your time at OSU will be cherished. I will treasure all the moments, both good and bad. I will miss teasing you about your posture, and all your technical expertise 😊. Rest in peace Watusi! Till we meet again. God speed.

“ Bob Westlund was a neighbor for many years on Vineyard Mountain. He was one of the most kind and genuine individuals I have ever known. His infectious smile, great sense of humor and outgoing personality made him instantly likeable and a friend for life. Always quick with a compliment he was interested in what was going on in your life but so humble he rarely spoke about himself. He treated our young children at the time like his own. We are very sad about his passing but we will never forget our friend, Bob Westlund. Rest in peace Bob.

“ When I was hired by the Oregon State University Foundation in 2014 to work as the Chief Athletics Fundraiser, a position that Mr. Westlund had held at OSU, I remember the first call of congratulations I received was from this kind, humble and humorous man. Every time I would see him at a sporting event, he was so supportive and complimentary of our efforts to help support student athletes. Bob Westlund left his fingerprints all over the athletic campus at OSU. In a career of more than 20 years he was instrumental in major facility improvements including the expansion of Reser Stadium, the Valley Football Center, the Merritt-Truax Indoor Center, the Prothro Football Complex and Goss Stadium at Coleman Field.

In the short period of time I had the pleasure of knowing Bob Westlund I learned to respect and appreciate so much his sense of humor and his complete devotion to donors. He accomplished a great deal at OSU and yet he never looked to be singled out for the success. Oregon State University Athletics benefitted in so many ways from the work that Bob Westlund did and for that we will forever be grateful. May he now rest in eternal peace. 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!' Matthew 25:23
